The Budget and Finance Committee, Office of the Attorney General, and the Nation's Accounting Department are conducting presentations to the public to explain recent amendments to the Nation's General Welfare law that allow the Nation and districts to distribute financial assistance to members without imposing a federal income tax obligation on recipients. The public will also be provided with a summary of the Legislative Council's increase in annual education assistance (formerly "Scholarship") from a maximum of $17,500 to $30,000 annually.

All scheduled presentations will be broadcast on KOHN 91.9 FM.
