LEGISLATIVE ORDER OF THE TOHONO O'ODHAM LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL (Setting Minimum Requirements for Review and Consideration of Appointees to the Position of the Nation's Treasurer)

LEGISLATIVE ORDER NO. 06-843

1	WHEREAS,	Article VII, Section 2(e) of the Constitution of the Tohono O'odham Nation vests the
2		Nation's Chairperson with the power to "[w]ith the approval of the Tohono O'odham
3		Council, to appoint the treasurer, and other officers and heads of all governmental 4		departments"; and
5	WHEREAS,	Article VI, Section 1(d)(2) of the Constitution further vests the Legislative Council with
6		the power and duty to "manage any funds within the exclusive control of the Tohono
7		O'odham Nation"; and
8	WHEREAS,	the position of the Nation's Treasurer has not been filled by an appointee approved
9		by the Legislative Council for a number of years; and 10	WHEREAS,	the Nation's Chairwoman recently employed Michael Johnson to serve as the Nation's 11		Treasurer without Council approval; and
12	WHEREAS,	the Budget and Finance Committee is vested by its Plan of Operation with authority
13		to "review recommendations made by the Chairman of the Nation for appointment
14		to the office of Treasurer of the Nation" and to "review and recommend legislative 15		measures or actions affecting the office of Treasurer of the Nation" (Plan of 16		Operation, Article 1(b)(7) and (b)(8)); and 17	WHEREAS,	the Budget and Finance Committee accordingly made a written request that the 18		Chairwoman notify the Committee in writing "as soon as possible" when she intended
19		to bring the Treasurer's appointment to the Council for approval, but received no
20		official response; and
21	WHEREAS,	on December 6, 2006, the Legislative Council passed Resolution No. 06-800, directing 22		that the Chairwoman's appointee be presented to the Council as required under the 23		Nation's Constitution; and
24	WHEREAS,	Resolution No. 06-800 specifically provides that, "in order to preserve the fiscal 25		integrity of the Nation, it is essential that the Legislative Council be given the 26		opportunity to fully review Mr. Johnson's certifications and other qualifications;
27		work, credit, and other history; and consider his appointment during the December
28		general session"; and
29	WHEREAS,	despite the terms of Resolution No. 06-800, the Chairwoman has not provided the 30		Legislative Council with Mr. Johnson's credit history; and

1	WHEREAS,	as a result, the Legislative Council enacted Legislative Order No. 06-831, tabling
2		consideration of Mr. Johnson's appointment as Treasurer until all requested
3		documentation is reviewed and received, including financial background
4		information, and all provisions outlined in the resolved clauses of Resolution No. 06-
5		800 are satisfied; and

WHEREAS, on December 11, 2006, the Nation's Chairwoman notified the Nation's Districts that she would personally perform the day-to-day functions of the Treasurer but that "no transfers pertaining to gaming distribution and mining royalties etc. will be conducted until such time that we have a Treasurer in place"; and

10 WHEREAS, the Chairwoman's decision to suspend transfers to the Districts is inconsistent with 11 the laws of the Nation; and

12WHEREAS, the process for distributing gaming revenues is governed by Tohono O'odham Code13Title 26, Chapter 1, Article 3, which provides the formula for distributing gaming14revenues to the Nation and Districts, and the guidelines for expenditure of the district15allocation of gaming revenue; and 16WHEREAS, the Chairwoman's suspension of gaming revenue distribution and other transfers to17Districts appears to be an effort to force action on her appointee, despite the absence18of information that is essential to assessing the appointee's qualifications and19suitability for a position with access to and control over millions of dollars in Nation's20funds.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Tohono O'odham Legislative Council that a Chairperson's appointee to the position of Treasurer shall not be considered by the
