IN REPLY REFER TO:

NOV 22 1983

Through: Superintendent, Papago Agency.

Mr. Josiah Moore

Chairman, Papago Council

Dear Mr. Moore:

We have received Papago Tribal Ordinance No. 04-83 which was enacted by the Tribal Council on September 7, 1983 and approved by the Superintendent on September 14. The Superintendent's approval is subject to Secretarial review.

Said ordinance will provide for the escheat, sale and disposition of treasure-trove and abandoned property, discovered within the exterior boundaries of the Papago Reservation.

The ordinance has been reviewed by the Field Solicitor's office and Area Office staff, and we find no legal reason to rescind the Superintendent's approval. However, Section 4, Treasure-trove and Section 5, Abandoned Property, deserve a cautionary note. In Section 4, the use of the word "dust" as a treasure-trove could apply to any natural gold or silver deposit on the reservation. There are non-Indians currently producing gold and silver from patented and unpatented mining claims and from leases within the exterior boundaries of the reservation. Non-Indians should be included in the ordinance as authorized users. We suggest that "other than naturally occurring deposits" be inserted after the word "dust" in the first sentence.

In Section 5, we have two (2) questions:

- (1) Will the Tribe have professional expertise available to determine if any embedded property is at least 50 years old?
- (2) Will burial sites be considered abandoned property if no one knows the identity of the individual?

We suggest this section be given further thought and, for now at least, burials as referred to in this ordinance be deleted from the abandoned property inventory.

Given the above considerations and recommendations, I hereby concur with the Superintendent's September 14 approval and Ordinance No. 04-83 remains in full force and effect as of the date of the Superintendent's approval.

Sincerely,

Walter A. Mills
