RESOLUTION OF THE TOHONO O'ODHAM LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL (Tribal-State Gaming Compact - Litigation)

RES. NO. 354-89

| - 1 |          |  |
|-----|----------|--|
| 1   | WHEREAS, | on October 17, 1988, the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act    |
| 2   |          | (S.555) was enacted into law providing for (1) a         |
| 3   |          | statutory basis for operations of gaming by Indian       |
| 4   |          | tribes, (2) a statutory basis for the regulation of      |
| 5   |          | gaming by an Indian tribe, and (3) the establishment of  |
| 6   |          | independent federal regulatory authority and standards   |
| 7   |          | for gaming on Indian lands; and                          |
| 8   | WHEREAS, | the Tohono O'Odham Nation has for many years owned and   |
| 9   |          | operated a bingo hall on the San Xavier Reservation      |
| 10  |          | wherein the game of bingo is played both electronically  |
| 11  |          | and manually including other games similar to bingo; and |
| 12  | WHEREAS, | the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act divides the gaming on   |
| 13  |          | Indian lands into three classes, namely, Class I gaming, |
| 14  |          | meaning social games which are unregulated by the Act;   |
| 15  |          | Class II gaming such as bingo and games similar to       |
| 16  |          | bingo, excluding electronic or electromechanical bingo   |
| 17  |          | machines, which are tribally and federally regulated;    |
| 18  |          | and Class III gaming, meaning all forms of gaming that   |
| 19  |          | are not Class I or Class II gaming; and                  |
| 20  | WHEREAS, | the Act further provides that Class III gaming           |
| 21  |          | activities are lawful on Indian lands if such activities |
| 22  |          | are (1) authorized by a tribal ordinance or resolution,  |
| 23  |          | (2) located in a state that permits such gaming          |
| 24  |          | activities, and (3) conducted in conformance with a      |
| 25  | -        | tribal-state compact entered into by the Indian tribe    |
| 26  |          | and the State; and                                       |
| 27  | WHEREAS, | the Act further provides that for a period of one year   |
| 28  |          | from the date of enactment of the Act, Class II gaming   |
| 29  |          | includes electronic or electromechanical facsimiles of   |
| 30  |          | any game of chance (bingo) that was legally operated on  |
| 31  |          | Indian lands on or before May 1, 1988, if the Indian     | tribe having jurisdiction over the lands on which such gaming was operated requests the State, by no later than the date that is 30 days after the date of enactment of the Act, to negotiate a tribal-state compact under the provisions of the Act; and

- WHEREAS, within thirty days after the date of enactment of the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act, the Tohono O'Odham Nation did send a request to the State of Arizona to negotiate a Tribal-State Compact under the provisions of the Act; and
- WHEREAS, the Tohono O'Odham Nation has worked on and developed a draft of a Tribal-State Compact between the State of Arizona and the Nation and has submitted said draft to the State of Arizona for its consideration with a request to the State to set a time, place and date for completing the negotiations for a Tribal-State Compact; and
- WHEREAS, although, officials of the Tohono O'Odham Nation have continuously called the Governor's Office of the State of Arizona for the purposes of setting a time, place and date to complete these negotiations, the State of Arizona has failed to respond to the Nation's request; and
- WHEREAS, the deadline set forth in the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act for negotiating a Tribal-State Compact is October 17, 1989, and the Act further provides that the use of video machines after said date without a Tribal-State Compact will be illegal and therefore said video machines will be subject to seizure by the United States Attorney's Office; and
- WHEREAS, the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act provides that an Indian tribe may initiate a cause of action in the United States District Court if a State did not respond to the request of an Indian tribe to negotiate a Tribal-State

Compact or did not respond to such request in good faith; and if the Court finds that the State has failed to negotiate in good faith with an Indian tribe to conclude a Tribal-State Compact, the Court shall order the State and the Indian tribe to conclude such Compact within sixty days and if not concluded within sixty days, the Court, under the provisions of the Act, has the power to evoke other remedies; and for Court determination is whether or not the use of video gaming devices on Indian reservation by the State of Arizona are permissible under the provisions of the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act; and

WHEREAS, the critical question that will probably be necessary

WHEREAS, it might become necessary to file an action in the United States District Court either in conjunction with other Indian tribes located in Arizona, or on behalf of the Tohono O'Odham Nation individually on very short notice to protect the gaming activities now being utilized in the Nation's gaming business; and

WHEREAS, if said legal action should become necessary, there will not be sufficient time to go through the Nation's procedures to authorize said action.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that this Legislative Council does hereby delegate to the Nation's Tribal-State Compact Negotiating Committee the power to authorize the initiation of a cause of action in the United States District Court for the purposes of establishing that the State of Arizona has not negotiated in good faith with the Nation the terms and conditions of a Tribal-State Compact for gaming activities on its reservation and for any other purpose that might be beneficial to the Nation for the protection of the gaming activities now being utilized in its gaming operation.
